

REACTIONS TO THE DOCUMENTARY BY MARIANNA FARFALLA

Blueprint for a better world, health and happiness in our own hands

Rabbi Mordechal-Lazar, head of the monastery 'The holy church of Nitivity' in Jerusalem: Message from Israel. 'Blueprint for a better World' is very inspiring and educational, and made with good intentions and knowledge. It's very good! Thank you.

Josephine Wall, artist from England:

Your ideas and hope for the world are admirable and I support you 100%.

Reverend Dominic Egbe from Nigeria (Holy Church of God - Lagos):

You inspire me with 'Blueprint for a better world'. It is the best documentary ever made. Thank you very much and may God bless you.

Karimi Azar on behalf of a group of women in Iran:

Thank you for the hope you bring into our lives with your documentary. Thanks for all the work and loving care you carried out into a world where many people are no longer involved. I hope people realize that the world will only get better when as many people as possible join forces.

Gianfranco Serafini, director of health clinic in Italy:

Marianna is a great speaker who really knows how to get to people. I am sure that with this documentary she will help many people and I am proud to have been part of this valuable project.

Eddy Rose (artist) and Maria v.d. Louw (yoga teacher):

When we saw your documentary, we were very moved. What a great view on politics. You offer a real solution to world problems. If this was put into practice, the world would look better. Beautiful, very beautiful!

Albert Bronk, journalist and life coach:

It's a great documentary, super. I enjoyed it. It was even better than I expected.

Mariska Vroom, manager drugstore:

I admire Marianna and her commitment to nature. I thought it was a fantastic documentary and love that she raises this issue.

Nahid Karimi, assistant chemist:

When I saw this impressive documentary, I felt that I should do something. It gave me a lot of positive energy. That's why I posted parts of it on my Facebook and I received many positive responses from Iran, such as my sisters.

Karen Ooms, nurse:

I think your documentary is very inspirational and educational. You have given a lot of care and attention to it and everything comes straight out of your heart. Many thanks and lots of respect for you.
